

Special Parties

Leola Motley

Parties are very special to me and my love ones. We get together and celebrate special events. This year we are giving my father a surprised birthday party. He will be 95-years-old on the 1st of December. Everyone will be there, it will be cousin Pam, aunt Jenny, uncle Albert, his wife and three children, my grandparents, and all my cousins.

My mom and I are going to make him a three-layer strawberry cake. It will have whip cream icing on it, with fresh strawberry's on top. For dinner we are cooking his favorite; bake lamb with stuffed mushrooms, asparagus and baked potatoes. Cousin Pam is bringing fresh apple pies and oat meal cookies. Uncle Albert and his family is bringing kimchi. My dad loves kimchi, since he's tried it in Korea, he can't stop eating it. Aunt Jenny is bringing Soju, sake, and my dad's favorite wine red Moscato.

My cousins are in charge decorating. My grandparents are going to show pictures of my dad, from when he was young. This is going to be such a festive occasion. I can't wait to see my dad's expression when he opens all the wonderful gifts he is getting. I bought him a gold watch, that says to the best dad in the world.
